ELLZEY ACHEIVES BROKER ASSOCIATE STATUS

Pensacola, FL (March 2013)

Ken Ellzey, an associate with NAI Pensacola has successfully completed the academic requirements and the Florida State Exam to reach Broker Associate status with Pensacola-based commercial real estate firm NAI Pensacola. Ken joined NAI Pensacola in 2002 after a successful career as owner and CEO of Ellzey Construction.

“We encourage our associates to continue their professional education and strive to reach broker status and other certifications and accreditations. When we improve our skills, we do a better job for our customers,” states NAI Pensacola Senior Vice President, Tom Bell.

Ken is licensed in FI and AI; he is a commercial real estate generalist, who specializes in sales and leasing of industrial, land and multi family properties.
