DAVIS EARNS SIOR DESIGNATION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, October 30th, 2013

NAI Pensacola announced that one of the firm's principals, DeeDee Davis, has attained the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (SIOR) designation.

Headquartered in Washington, D.C., SIOR is a global, professional organization that certifies commercial real estate providers with the exclusive SIOR designation. Individuals who earn the SIOR designation adhere to the highest levels of accountability and ethical standards. Only the industry's top professionals qualify for the SIOR. Today there are more than 3,000 SIOR members in 630 cities in 34 countries.

Davis, a specialist in the Pensacola Office Market, represents tenants and landlords with strategic planning, leasing and investment sales services.

A Pensacola native, Davis earned her masters degree at the University of Nevada. She began her commercial real estate career in 2004.
